PAUSING TO PRAY

Lenten Meditations for Busy People

Refresh me. Transform me. Sustain me.

In difficult moments, I will fix my gaze upon the silent Heart of Jesus, stretched upon the Cross, and from the exploding flames of His merciful Heart, will flow down upon me power and strength to keep fighting

(Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, 906)

Meditation:

When I am tired or discouraged, I look to You, Jesus, to Your merciful Heart and Your immense love for me. In Your love, You left me Yourself in the Eucharist. In it, I find the hidden strength to continue this battle for my soul and for all souls. Refresh me. Transform me. Sustain me. I look to You, O Lord.

Meditation by Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC

Approach the Fount of Life

Meditation:

I desire that the first Sunday after Easter be the Feast of Mercy (Diary, 299).

Ask of my faithful servant [Father Sopocko] that, on this day, he tell the whole world of My great mercy; that whoever approaches the Fount of Life on this day will be granted complete remission of sins and punishment. Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to My mercy (Diary, 300).

My Prayer Response:

“Mankind so needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy” (John Paul II, posthumous Divine Mercy Sunday message, April 3, 2005). Lord Jesus, help us to believe in the promise You made about Mercy Sunday and turn to Your mercy with trust.
