Today Lord, I begin again

I do not ask, Lord, that You take me down from the cross, but I implore You to give me the strength to remain steadfast upon it (Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, 1484)

Meditation:

Lord, St. Faustina is a great saint. I'm not. Sometimes I complain about even the littlest crosses in my life. Well, as You gave Faustina the grace to accept her big crosses, please give me the grace not to complain about my little ones. You are so merciful that You forget what a complainer I've been. Today, Lord, I begin again. Out of love for You, I will try to give You a smile when I feel the splinters from the Cross. And if I have to begin again tomorrow, I won't get discouraged. After all, You love little souls most especially, and I'm certainly much smaller than Faustina.

Meditation by Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC

- Used with permission of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the B.V.M.

"In tribulation immediately draw near to God with confidence, and you will receive strength, enlightenment, and instruction."

-St. John of the Cross

Never Be Discouraged

"There is really nothing we need know or even try to understand if we refuse to be discouraged and trust God's guiding hand.

So take heart and meet each minute with faith in God's great love, aware that every day of life is controlled by God above.

And never dread tomorrow or what the future brings, just pray for strength and courage and trust God in all things.

So never grow discouraged, be patient and just wait, for God never comes too early and He never comes too late!"

Helen Steiner Rice -Joy for the Heart

Offer your Mass this week-end for the most abandoned souls and ask them to pray for a special need.
