"Day by Day with St. Faustina" Class

Come join us for "Day by Day with St. Faustina"! This is the amazing story of how the Divine Mercy chaplet, Divine Mercy Sunday & the image of Jesus showing his Divine Mercy began. We will read a little of her diary & share what she is saying to us. Bring a copy of St. Faustina's Diary & a Bible. Don't worry if you don't have a book; as we can share. You may want to have a little notebook & pen to jot down words that speak to you. We are going to kick off with a pot luck supper so bring a little something to share. Our initial meeting will be Monday, June 17th at 4pm in Room 4 at Annunciation Parish Center. We will determine at that time how often we will meet. We are going to read together, pray together & break bread together. Karen Slocum & Joy Patterson will lead the group. For anyone who has tried to read the whole diary & found it overwhelming this may be the class for you! All are welcomed!.

Directives about Temptations

Meditation

February 3, [1938]. Today after Holy Communion, Jesus again gave me a few directives: First, do not fight against a temptation by yourself, but disclose it to the confessor at once, and then the temptation will lose all its force. Second, during these ordeals do not lose your peace; live in My presence; ask My Mother and the Saints for help (Diary, 1560).

My Prayer Response:

Thank You, Lord, for giving me directives about temptations. May I always be open with my confessor. May I remain at peace in the midst of temptation by living in Your presence and asking Mother Mary and the Saints for help.

Diary passages with bolded words are Jesus speaking - Used with permission of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the B.V.M.

Temptation is the solicitation to sin, whether by persuasion or offering some pleasure. It may arise from the world, the flesh, or the devil. Temptation from the world is the attractiveness of bad example and the psychological pressure to conform. Temptations from the flesh are all the urges of concupiscence, whether carnal or spiritual, where man's fallen nature has built-in tendencies to the seven capital sins. Demonic temptations arise from instigations of the evil spirit, whose method is to encourage every form of avarice or selfishness, in order to lead one to pride, and through pride to all other sins.

- Modern Catholic Dictionary

“Temptation to a certain sin, to any sin whatsoever, might last throughout our whole life, yet it can never make us displeasing to God’s Majesty provided we do not take pleasure in it and give consent to it. You must have great courage in the midst of temptation. Never think yourself overcome as long as they are displeasing to you, keeping clearly in mind the difference between feeling temptation and consenting to it.”

- St. Francis DeSales

"When an evil thought is presented to the mind, we must immediately endeavor to turn our thoughts to God, or to something which is indifferent. But the first rule is, instantly to invoke the names of Jesus and Mary and to continue to invoke them until the temptation ceases. He who trusts in himself is lost. He who trusts
