Mass Intentions

If you have already asked that mass be offered for a specific intention it will be honored. Although we are unable to be physically together at mass I hope you will join me spiritually by watching mass on television or on-line. I will be offering mass in my private chapel everyday (Monday - Friday & Sunday morning). If you wish to schedule any other mass intention please call or e-mail the parish office.

Praying at Home

As you are aware Bishop Scharfenberger has announced that all regularly scheduled public masses except weddings and funeral will be canceled until further notice. Annunciation and Queen of Apostles however will remain open for private prayer from 8:30am to 4pm 7 days a week. Our bishop encourages us to pray and fast as we continue our journey through this season of Lent. He recommends reading the bible, praying the rosary and watching mass on television. For information on what you can do at home please go to rcda.org/coronavirus/resources

Laetare Sunday - Fourth Sunday of Lent

Why is the Fourth Sunday of Lent called Laetare Sunday?

- The name comes from the first words of the Entrance Antiphon for Mass, "Laetare Jerusalem" — "Rejoice, O Jerusalem".
- The fourth Sunday marks the half-way point of the Lenten season, even though the Thursday before Laetare Sunday is the actual middle day of Lent.
- Signs of joy are allowed on this day, expressing our belief in the hope of the resurrection and to inspire us as we continue our Lenten commitments to prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Prayer to the Virgin Mary for Protection

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you. Health of the Sick.
At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.

You, Our Lady of New York, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that,
as you did at Cana of Galilee,
joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will
and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us:
through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.
We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas - we who are put to the test - and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.
